Volunteer Position Description: YWCA Ambassador

YWCA of Greater Atlanta is a local chapter of the national organization, YWCA USA, and has been a voice for change for women and families in Georgia since its founding at Spelman College in 1902. Our organization's foundation is built upon a history of mobilizing diverse groups of women leaders to identify community problems, advocate for solutions, and create more equitable communities in Georgia

Position: YWCA Ambassador

Hours: Attendance at a 45min orientation/training session is required. Minimum 12-month commitment. Flexible schedule.

Compensation: Unpaid volunteer position

Description: The YWCA Ambassadors Program is designed to train members to serve as representatives for the YWCA of Greater Atlanta. YWCA Ambassadors play a vital role in advancing the YWCA's mission to eliminate racism and empower women.

Becoming a YWCA Ambassador is a great way for the community to get involved in YWCA, and in doing so, develop leadership skills and foster relationships with other organizations and key stakeholders. This position will also provide members with a unique opportunity to become more cognizant of initiatives within our three focus areas.

Objectives

- To increase the visibility of the YWCA of Greater Atlanta across the metro Atlanta region
- To strengthen YWCA's community connections by developing mutually beneficial relationships
